

PRESIDENT/CEO

Tamika L. Law is an accomplished singer and businesswoman who has mastered the art of combining her Administrative and Customer Service background with her lifelong passion of music through her company Musically Yours Entertainment Group (MYEG).

Tamika brings to your event over 10 years experience as a multi-faceted, highly motivated, and goal-driven Musical Executive. Her strong work ethic and love for people make her easy to work with and relate. She enjoys composing the musical soundtrack to your special occasion while making a memorable moment for you, the client! It gives her great pleasure to see dreams manifest knowing she played a small part in them coming true.

ABOUT US

As a premier Entertainment Company, Musically Yours Entertainment Group is your one-stop shop for live music entertainment for any event. We take the headache out of trying to choose the best music professionals and provide quality entertainment to meet your every need. Established in January 2009, MYEG operates as an entertainment company/booking agency providing multifaceted singers, musicians, and music services for special events. We also provide production management for entertainment projects, and event planning for special events. We also oversee production of onsite performance areas & support staff for stage set-ups.

With our team of experienced, creative & dedicated professionals, our top priority is always striving to deliver more than the client's expectations.
